Re: U.S. v. Drinkman, 09-cr-626

Dear Judge Simandle:

I just, today, received Your Honor's November 7, 2013 letter addressing Bloomberg News's request that the filings in the above-referenced action be unsealed. I note that the government's opposition, if any, was to be submitted by November 15, and Bloomberg's reply would have been due today (November 25). The docket does not appear to reflect a related submission by the government, so I did not think it necessary to burden the Court with any additional response from Bloomberg. That said, if the Court plans to hear argument on the matter at the upcoming December 2 status conference, I would welcome the opportunity to participate by telephone, which the Court indicated, in the November 7 letter, was possible. Please let me know if there is a telephone number I should dial into, or if the Court would prefer to contact me directly when the issue is ready for discussion ((212) 617-0814).

Respectfully submitted,

Randy L. Shapiro
